Where do you work and what is your role there?

I work at Oxford Properties Group as General Manager, Procurement. I'm responsible for Oxford's customer service platform 310-maxx and the procurement nationally of services that Oxford outsources which include Cleaning, Security and Elevators.

What areas of commercial real estate do you specialize in?

The area that I specialize in is procurement, operations and best practices.

What do you find is most challenging or satisfying in your role?

The most challenging and satisfying part of my role is relationship building with both internal and external partners.

How long have you been a CREW member, and what do you get most out of being a member?

I've been a CREW member since 2008. CREW has allowed me a forum to develop my leadership skills through committee involvement and board participation. Being a member of a committee provides an opportunity to highlight your abilities with people who work outside of your organization. It is the ultimate networking opportunity.

I would like CREW members to call me whenever they need...

to discuss building services procurement and operations matters over a friendly cup of coffee.
